

Internship at Ratos – Fall 2025

We are looking for our next Investment Intern to join the team in Stockholm on a full-time basis during the Fall of 2025.

As a core member of our investment team, you will play a key role in a variety of projects while developing your skills in the intersection between strategy, transactions, and operations. Ratos offers a professional and inclusive environment with an emphasis on teamwork.

Typical tasks include:

- Build and develop financial models and draft presentations to support executive and board decision-making
- Work closely with our portfolio companies on add-on acquisitions, value-creation initiatives and other operational projects
- Evaluation and analysis of new investment opportunities
- Support investment processes, due diligence & transaction execution
- Research industries and sub-sectors (including industry benchmarking, growth outlooks and key risks)

Who we are looking for:

- MSc or final-year BSc student with excellent academic results
- Ambitious with a commercial mindset and interpersonal skills
- Autonomous and ability to think independently
- High degree of proficiency in Microsoft Excel and PowerPoint
- Fluency in English and a Nordic language
- Previous work experience from management consulting, investment banking, private equity, or other relevant investment organization

Please apply no later than 21 April by sending CV, Cover Letter and university transcript to hr@ratos.com. We assess candidates on an ongoing basis and look forward to receiving your application as soon as possible.

Ratos is a publicly listed business group that for over 150 years has owned and developed companies across a wide array of industries. Our business concept is to own and develop companies that are or can become market leaders by supporting management teams and being an active partner. We invest from our own balance sheet, have an evergreen ownership horizon, and focus on mid-sized Nordic companies with demonstrated growth capabilities and ambitions.
